

Uniquely Phoenix – Bites and Sips

Lom Wong

Celebrating the cultures and recipes of Thailand, Yotaka “Sunny” and Alex Martin opened the beloved Lom Wong in 2019, making it their goal to share the unique regional dishes they knew and loved. Lom Wong’s mission is to be sincere to the ingredients, techniques and service styles that are found in the Thai villages that inspired the restaurant. Lom Wong – The Documentary was released in October 2021, highlighting the days when Sunny and Alex ran weekly pop-ups before their brick-and-mortar opened in early 2022 and sharing the stories of the friends and family who inspired these recipes. Lom Wong has drawn attention nationwide, with a feature in the New York Times in 2022 and a nomination for the James Beard Award’s Best Chef of the Southwest in 2023.

The Phoenician

Unveiling a fresh, contemporary luxury throughout, the AAA Five Diamond Phoenician presents personalized experiences that are rare and memorable by design. The result of the most massive renovation undertaken since the property opened in October 1988, the resort has transformed itself, introducing a diverse collection of offerings that honor both guest and destination. In late fall 2017, a refurbished main lobby, Thirsty Camel Lounge, Afternoon Tea Room, retail space, and pool complex -- with both reserved seating and Kids Zone -- debuted. The Marketplace, a European-inspired café, and Mowry & Cotton, a lively, approachable venue featuring Modern American cuisine, also premiered, joining signature restaurant J&G Steakhouse, which received a refresh in summer 2018. The new three-story Phoenician Spa was introduced in spring 2018, showcasing a rooftop pool and Drybar; along with The Phoenician Athletic Club, offering tennis, pickleball and basketball, as well as a state-of-the-art fitness center. Complementing it all is the extensive remodel of all resort guestrooms and casitas, as well as the makeover of The Canyon Suites at The Phoenician – the only Forbes Five Star and AAA Five Diamond hotel in the greater Phoenix area – which took place in summer 2016.

Waymo

Waymo is a pioneering company at the forefront of autonomous vehicle technology. Established in 2009 as the Google Self-Driving Car Project, Waymo has evolved into a leading force in the development of self-driving technology. The company's primary objective is to revolutionize transportation by creating a safer, more efficient, and accessible mobility solution through autonomous vehicles.

One of Waymo's key aims is to positively impact communities by providing a transformative mode of transportation. Autonomous vehicles have the potential to enhance mobility for individuals who are unable to drive due to age, disability, or other reasons, thereby increasing accessibility and inclusivity. Moreover, Waymo envisions a future where its autonomous technology contributes to the reduction of traffic accidents caused by human error, making roads safer for everyone. By focusing on developing self-driving technology, Waymo aims to create a transportation ecosystem that is not only efficient but also addresses broader societal needs.

In terms of sustainability, Waymo is committed to environmental responsibility by exploring how autonomous driving can contribute to a more eco-friendly transportation landscape.

Through the optimization of routes, reduction of traffic congestion, and the potential for electric or hybrid vehicle fleets, Waymo aims to play a role in minimizing the environmental impact of transportation. By promoting shared mobility and efficient use of resources, Waymo envisions a more sustainable and greener future for urban transportation.
